

I personally believe Mayor Michael Bloomberg has ulterior motives regarding commercial real estate while values are down.

And will use his connections and inside information while in office to buy many such investment properties if term limits are changed.

Increasing term limits will allow a possibly corrupt elected official to continue partisan politics, favoritism, and corrupt and unethical activities.

Term limits should not be increased, permanently or temporarily, and I do not believe it to be in the best interest of the constituents.

E Taylor